

Art Teacher

Part Time Maternity Leave Position

Commencing January 2020

St Margaret's College is a leading Year 1-13 Anglican Girls' Day and Boarding School in Christchurch with a working environment that is committed to constant advancement of quality teaching and learning. The College is unique in that it offers the dual academic pathway of NCEA and the International Baccalaureate (IB) Diploma, a strong emphasis on well-being and pastoral care as well as academic success.

We require a motivated and enthusiastic Art teacher, who is passionate about teaching painting, drawing and print making to Year 7-11 students.

Applicants must have knowledge of and experience with the New Zealand Curriculum, current registration with the NZ Teachers Council, commitment to the vision and values of the College. Applicants must also demonstrate a commitment to being part of a well-resourced and supportive environment with motivated students who are keen to learn.

To apply, please send your CV, application letter and SMC application form by email to Wendy McPhail wendy.mcphail@stmargarets.school.nz.

Applications close 4pm on Monday 30 September 2019.
